

4.3 Terms and Conditions for use of Public Meeting Space

The Coaldale Public Library building is owned by the Town of Coaldale and governed by the Town of Coaldale Library Board. The Board leases the McCain Gallery and small meeting room to individuals, groups and organizations for community, education, literacy, social, recreational and cultural use during the hours the Library is open to the public.

1. The act of leasing space in the Library does not constitute endorsement by the Board of any policies or beliefs of the individuals, groups and organizations leasing space.
2. Lease arrangements are made through the Head Librarian. The Library's Room Rental Agreement must be signed (Schedule E) and fees must be paid to confirm a booking.
3. A user of leased space in the Library must:
 - a. sign the Library's Room Rental Agreement prior to the use of space
 - b. follow all Library Policies
 - c. set up and put away chairs, tables and any other furniture or equipment used
 - d. leave the leased space in a neat condition and in the order in which it was found
 - e. remove all items brought into the Library immediately after the lease period
 - f. leave all equipment leased from the Library in proper operating condition
 - g. only use "blue tack" to attach materials to the walls in the leased space (materials may be attached to the picture track or whiteboard with masking tape)
 - h. provide their own general office supplies such as blue tack, masking tape, scissors, markers, extension cords, flip chart paper, overhead slides
 - i. compensate the Library for all damages occurred in the Library during the lease period and any janitorial clean-up required as a result of the lease
 - j. not allow smoking in any form or consumption of alcoholic beverages
 - k. keep noise level at a volume which does not disturb other Patrons.
4. The Library will not:
 - a. take responsibility for items a user brings into the Library for the purposes of the meeting
 - b. provide catering, dishes, utensils and clean-up
 - c. provide any equipment other than that listed on the Agreement for Use.
5. Invigilation service is available. Examination times will be determined by the student and Head Librarian.
6. See attached Schedule E for lease rates and fees and Schedule F for the Room Rental Agreement.
